An Accident at Alken.

AIKEN, December 11.-A very unfortu-nate accident occurred this afternoon at 4 o'clock to Jack Fields during the firing of salutes in honor of Jefferson Davis. It seems that the cannon was loaded with hard red clay, and when the fust was touched off the clay and powder to gether took effect in Field's body and getter took effect in Field's body and bead, he being only a few yards in from of the gun. A large part of his temple was blown off, and his back was terribly lacerated. He will probably die.

Sun's Cotton Review.

NEW YORK, December 12.-The Sun'

cotton review says;
"Futures made an advance of 3a4 points on a stronger report from Liver-pool, (which took many of the hears by surprise), supplemented by very small re-ceipts at New Orleans, but at noon the market had become dull and weak, the bulls showing little of vim with which they of late have come to the source. they of late have come to the support of values. Large receipts at Savannah and a decline of 1-16 at Wilmington also gave them a pause. Cotton on spot was du and weak,"

A Florida Mayor Killed.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., December 12.-JACKSONULLE, Flat, December 12.— Louis Wittkowski, the mayor of Starke, Flat, was shot and instantly killed at Gamesville to-day by Albert Thrasher, of the law firm of Asheley & Thrasher, The shooting took place in the office of the law firm. The cause of the sho iting is not well understood, but is supposed to have been brought about by family at fairs. Thrasher gave himself up.
